23rd Annual Fairbank Memorial Run/Walk/Bike

Saturday
March 10, 2012

Run
Bike
Walk
Starts
at Noon

Start and finish: Rodin Sculpture Garden (corner of Roth Way and Lomita Drive)

No entry fee and free refreshments

The winner, as in years past, will be the runner, walker, bicyclist, etc. whose actual time is (fractionally) closest to his or her predicted time. (Of course, all watches are retained by the starter; or leave your watches at home.) Runners and walkers can take Roth Way to the Campus Drive-Junipero Serra loop (4.2 miles), while the bicyclists can use a loop out to Page Mill Rd., then Arastradero Rd., returning via Alpine Rd. (11.5 miles). However, you may use any route and mode of transport.

Questions? Contact Rosenna Yau (rosenna.yau@stanford.edu) or the Physics Department 650-723-4344.

An avid runner and an inspiring person, Bill Fairbank was Professor of Physics from 1959 until his death in 1989.

This is an event sponsored by the Stanford Physics Department and is open to the general public.

All are welcome!

To participate in this event, you must sign the attached waiver; pls. print, sign and bring with you.
